Increase of tasdik to the temples of Sri Dwyalingeswara Swami, Sri Gopalakrishnaswamy, & Sri Anjaneyaswamy at Haradanhalli in the Chamarajanagar taluk

No 249 Dated 26-11-12 / 2-12-12 Received 4-12-12

Brief Abstract of Letter

Proposes that the tasdik of the above temples may be increased by Rs 374-6-0 per annum, the charge being met either directly from the Sri Chamarajeswari temple funds or by investing a sum of Rs 10,000/- out of the said funds ~~the interest derived~~ in the Govt Securities & utilising the interest thereon

NOTES AND ORDERS.

P

From the Notes of Inspection of the Muzrai Secretary (in April 1903) herewith put up, it is seen that Haradanahalli is the birth-place of the old Maharajas of Mysore, that it is now almost in ruins and that is (4 miles only from Chamarajanagar. There are 3 temples at the place enjoying an aggregate cash tasdik of Rs 214-9-0 as detailed below—

	Rs
1) Divyalingeswara Swami	101-8-0
2) Gopalakrishnaswami	101-7-0
3) Anjaneyaswami	11-10-0
Total	Rs 214-9-0

2) The question of increasing the tasdik of these temples ~~was~~ had been brought up before the R Assembly of 1905 and the reply of Govt on the Subject was as follows.

"The Dy Comrs report is awaited and he will be asked to submit it very early. The surplus fund of the Sri Chamarajeswara Swami temple can not be used for a better purpose."

3) The Dy Comr in his present letter proposes to enhance the tasdik of the temples by a sum of Rs 374-6- the cost being met either directly from the funds of the Chamarajeswara Swami temple funds or by investing a sum of Rs 10,000/- out of the surplus funds of that temple in the Mysore 4% Loan and utilising the interest thereon for the purpose. The Auditor in his report of the 29-8-1912 states that there is a sum of ~~Rs~~ about Rs 90,000/- at the credit of the temple which bears no interest. This seems to be incorrect. It is ascertained from the Comptroller's office that a sum of Rs 62,098-3-8 (face value) has already been invested in the Govt of India Securities and that a sum of Rs 22,762/- was available in Muz funds on 30th June 1912. Anyh the sum of Rs 10,000/- now required seems to be available for further investment In case the Mysore 4% Loan Paper is not available a larger sum will have to be perhaps invested to get an interest of Rs 374-6-0 can be used for the benefit of the temples, a sum of 20,000 is at once available for investment in Govt of India 3½% securities, (as the investment of Govt funds in Govt Charitable Endowment securities seems to be at present the question), the annual income of 700 Rs being kept in reserve at the credit of the temples. In this case there will be an annual income of 700 Rs in the shape of interest on the securities and the amt now asked for viz Rs 375 can be easily granted to the three temples in question out of this interest amt.

to the temple, referred to in the inspection Notes, two files obtained from the Mysore Supdt's office are herewith put up. It is seen that one Gowri Lakshminarayanasastri ~~gifted a~~ of Haradanhalli has gifte ~~endowed~~ a certain wet land in the Hongamur village, with the object of the proceeds thereof being utilised for the conduct of certain specified sevas in the Sri Divyalingeswaraswa & Sri Gopalakrishnaswami temples at Haradanhalli. Another person Vz Venkachelliah, Sanbag of Nanjedevanpura, has also endowed certain lands to the Sri Divyalingeswaraswa temple for the purpose of the income thereof being expended on the occas of Brahmotsavam in the instn every year. As these lands have been granted for the conduct of specified services, no mention of it seems to have been made in the Scale.

(B) In the reply to R.A. Subjee No. 377 of 1905, Govt have stated that the surplus funds of the Sri

23 With due deference I am inclined to doubt the expediency of the policy which appears to have been indicated in the reply of Govt to the D. R A member. I do not know if it would be correct to spend the funds of one institution for the benefit of others, totally unconnected with the former. If once a precedent is set up there must be importunate application in other similar cases which it would be invidious to decline. Further there is a proposal to utilise all the available surplus of the Chamarajendra temple to place the Oriental Sanskrit College on a satisfactory basis and Rs 374 a year is a goodly sum to spend on one Haradanahalli being very near Chamarajanagar & ~~as~~ on account of its intimate relation otherwise, it was perhaps thought legitimate to divert part of its superfluous income to this temple. There are I believe similar instances of precedents.

I am however not prepared to sanction this diversion at present. The matter may be considered after the question of utilisation for Sanskrit College is disposed of.

The money available for investment shd at once be invested in interest bearing securities. Please take prompt steps.

~~Resolution~~ The list of investments held in the Custody of the Comptroller shows that a total sum of Rs 82,000 odd has been invested in the 3½% Govt. of India promises. Vide p. 305-6 of the Mysore Gazette of 21-3-18.

No further speculation in the matter of the division of the funds has been made during these 8 years, and in view of the late Dist. Councillor's order above noted whether the matter may now be dropped or the papers filed.

The increase of Sadik from the investment of Savings of Sri Ramaraja Swami temple seems to be not practicable. The Constitution of the General Nuzzai fund has to be awaited. Under the circumstances prevailing since the recommendation was first made, the question
